THE MISSISSIPM ELECTION QUESTION DECIDED!

baly'
On Monday, after the transaction of some unelection was called up, with the understanding | we do not learn Gen Wool, we understand that it was then to be finally disposed of. The i Correspondent of the New York Lapress gives the following account of the proceedings of the House in their final action upon the long vixed | question

Of 240 members of Congress, 236 were in the city Horses and carriages, messengers and officers, were sent in all directions to bring in the lost and scattered flick. The friends of the chipman's, in the city, to a man, were early at there posts, and ready to bung the vote to a tra-m), and to close the discussion. Not so the Ad Les to trong a surberg A Mr Eletober, of a Vermont, the only Administration member from the Green Mountain States appeared in the Hall looking like the ghost of Hainlet's father, dewas led to by two members. under the earth, than a living man upon its surface. Pale, d jected, a emingly from his death bed, with no power to life his hand to his head or to-support his weight, he had been diagged, appaiently from the burnal place of his resurrection for the purpose of lending himself to the services of his party. By and by, came Mr. Snyder, from Illinois, as I was told, with his grave clothes upon him, pale, wan, and woeh-gone looking as thouagh he too had been

Doom'd for a certain time to walk the night, And for the day, confined to fast in fire
